Expense of Gray, 125 to $1. Irving S. Lewine defeated Edward F. Gray by a score of 125 to 81 in the national amateur pocket billiard tournament at the Amateur Billiard Club of New York last night. It was Lewine's first victory in the event. He made a high run of eleven to nine for Gray and only four scratches to the latter's seven. Gray, who is a former champion, was in poor form. His play on individual shots was good, but his position work away below his standard. E. F. Raynolds won his third straight defeating H. B.
